

The Hire Effect™ | Team Assessment

Situation

*Something important needs to be done and no one is owning it.
People do things that aren't helpful.
Customers are confused about who their champion is and when.*

Your people work well together in fits and starts. Are they the wrong people? Is there something in the structure of your business that is preventing them from being a high performing team? It can be very confusing. You need them to be collaborating well to get what you need.

What do you do?

Should you reduce your goals and forget your dreams because you don't have a well-oiled machine?

Solution

The Hire Effect™ - Team Assessment

Small business teams that are performing at the top of their game capture the maximum amount of revenue by being on the same page:

- Knowing what the vision is
- Who is responsible and accountable for what
- When things need to get done

As the leader, the vision is your job and it's a critical piece. Getting everyone on the same page about who is responsible for what is hard. Fortunately, The Hire Effect's Team Assessment gathers and aligns all the interpretations of roles, sets essential conversations in place and launches your team to utilize that hidden capacity you know your team has. With The Hire Effect's Team Assessment your team will accomplish incredible things.

Testimonials

"The Hire Effect team set into place crystal clear roles. Everyone felt empowered and responsible for important pieces of the vision for my whole team. Wow!"

"I felt a bit lost when I was introduced to The Hire Effect team. Why wasn't I able to get my people working together smoothly? This short project catapulted us into a whole new realm of collaboration. Great stuff!"

Email us today for a free conversation about what this looks like and when you can get started:

TeamAssessment@TheHireEffect.com

