People do things that aren't helpful.
Customers are confused about who their champion is and when.*

Your people work well together in fits and starts. Are they the wrong people? Is there something in the structure of your business that is preventing them from being a high performing team? It can be very confusing. You need them to be collaborating well to get what you need.

What do you do?

Should you reduce your goals and forget your dreams because you don't have a well-oiled machine?

Solution

Produce an Accountability Baseline for your team

Small business teams that are performing at the top of their game capture the maximum amount of revenue by being on the same page:

- Knowing what the vision is
- Who is responsible and accountable for what
- When things need to get done
- Know how to measure success

As the leader, the vision is your job and it's a critical piece. Getting everyone on the same page about who is responsible for what is hard. Fortunately, The Hire Effect's Accountability Baseline Project gathers and aligns all the interpretations of roles, sets essential conversations in place, and launches your team to utilize that hidden capacity you know your team has. With The Hire Effect's Accountability Baseline Project your team will accomplish incredible things.
